SCC Finances: $2,000 (from ministry)

I am attaching a letter written by Dean Broughton in 2016. It seems to connect a little bit with the SCC finances and Hot Lunch discussion pieces. The letter is simply meant to provide some history for new people (like me) to this situation. It is also important to note that just because this is what was decided then, it does not mean we are locked into that now – we would just need to agree on the best course moving forward!

Old Business:

- Microwaves in the school – Update

A variety of options were mentioned to help support our students during their meal time:

- Having parent volunteers in the classrooms
- Having staff stay in the classrooms during meal time
- Gathering all our students in a single meal location to be overseen by a single supervisor (gym was suggested as a location)
- Swapping the recess portion and meal portion of the lunch break

SCC Meeting Agenda

November 14th (6:00)

- Mandatory Band Program

We discussed the financial impact of this program and how there needs to be changes made next year. See actionable items for more information.

New Business:

- Student Centered Conferences idea...

We are going to host a Parent University night on the topic of supporting math learning at home (for parents). This is scheduled for November 21st.

- School Branding/Telling Our Story

Please encourage families, parents, and community members to like and follow our school pages on Facebook and Twitter.

- Growing Together

Alana Gunsch and Gina Smith are attending – we are excited to hear their learning stories!!

SCC Planning and Events:

- What's next? SCC Initiative and Plans for 2018/19

Talent Show is coming in the new year...

Trustee Report:

None.

Actionable Items:

- Alana is going to engage some community stakeholders in real-life teaching experience for our Borden School students – stay tuned for more information!!
- Brody Morris is going to contact Dave Carter to discuss alternative ways to deliver our music portion of the Arts Curriculum so that the financial burden is not so heavy and the engagement is higher
- The school needs to figure out our Counselor situation and find out when our kids will be seen.

SCC Meeting Agenda

November 14th (6:00)

- Brody Morris is going to connect with Dr. Couros re: doing a similar presentation at Borden School (just had a presentation at Aberdeen School).
