SCC Members and Staff in Attendance: Brody Morris, Gina Smith, Gwen Dyck, Alana Gunsch, Dionne Laprairie, Marcia Parker, Chyanne Werezak and Kim Worona.

1. SRC Report

- Current and upcoming SRC events

There were no SRC Students in attendance, so this item was skipped.

- Does the SRC Need a budget? Is there anything the SCC can do to help them if a budget is required? (Dionne Laprairie)
  - A coat check has been mentioned before.

Yes, the SRC would like to have a budget. They are brain storming different fundraising ideas. Any support/ideas that the SCC has would be appreciated.

2. Principal's Report:

- Academics:

- Teacher Candidates time is ending

Three third year Teacher Candidates who have been working with the school two days a week, since the beginning of October. Wednesday, December 4, 2019 is there last day and the school has had some good success with them.

- Monica has visited

Monica is taking over the K/1 and sometimes the grade 9 class had a visit with the school Tuesday, December 3, 2019 and Brody is excited to say that he thinks she'll fit right in at the school.

- Transitions Success Analysis

Gina as the Learning Facilitator (LF) led the teachers through a success analysis. The Teachers shared some of the purposeful work they've been doing around transitions. So they were sharing success stories and the intentional work that they are all doing.

SCC Meeting Minutes Tuesday, December 3, 2019

- Heather Wegren's time is at an end
Has been working with the school and the 4/5 class room, has been at the school throughout October and November her scheduled time for that group has come to an end.
Her support of the school is still on going as the school Counselor, but her time working with the 4/5 class has run its course.

- Bruin Time revamped
The school has moved some time around. They have tightened up the staffing on the high school end to create more staffing on the elementary end. This way we can have some more pull out time between now and Christmas. That pull out time is going to be geared towards the K/1 class room so that Alley can have some more time before she's on her maternity leave. When January comes the school will look at where that time will go next.

- Extra-Curricular:
  - Curling has had first meeting
A note did not go out informing the parents of when the first meeting was happening.
Brody Morris is adding a point to the Staff Meeting Agenda to make sure information is sent out to parents on what clubs or events will be starting.
  - Grade 5-7 Drama performance
There will be a play happening for this year's Christmas Concert.

- Enrollment

No changes have been made.

- Staffing
  - No News

3. SCC Finances $2000:

- What is our current account balance? (Alana Gunsch)
Our current balance is $1,353.54.
Dionne Laprairie will contact Ange Lukan for the "SCC Financial Report", to add to each meeting agenda.
- Should we consider having a Treasurer, and making a budget? (Dionne Laprairie)
No Treasurer is required. The SCC and School finances are intertwined, and Ange Lukan already takes care of Treasurer duties.

SCC Meeting Minutes Tuesday, December 3, 2019

4. Old Business:

- Christmas Concert:
  - Do we need to buy the books for the Christmas Concert? (Alana Gunsch)
Brody is going to look into whether or not the SCC needs to pay for this years Christmas Concert books. If he finds that the SCC is responsible for the purchase, we are willing to pay for 100 books.
Motioned by Alana Gunsch and seconded by Dionne Laprairie.
Brody Morris and Gina Smith will ask Ange Lukan and teachers in the know, if there are any left over Christmas Concert books from last year that we can give away this year.
  - Would the SCC like to have Santa give gifts of books at the X-Mas Concert/Open House? (Brody Morris)
Yes, see statement above.
  - Who can we convince to be Santa for the X-Mas Concert/Open House? (Brody Morris)
Yes, Alan Nichol will be the Santa this Christmas
  - Is anyone able to provide a trailer to pick up and return some staging that we rented for the Christmas Concert - from Saskatoon? (Brody Morris)
No one in the meeting has a trailer, however names of who to contact was given to Brody Morris as a start.
  - Is there anything else the SCC needs to do? (Alana Gunsch)
The SCC members can have a booth or an activity if we want; however, we decided to just let this be a School event and SCC Members will just attend as spectators.
- December 17th SCC Christmas Banquet:
  - What are the logistical requirements needed to put this banquet on?
Please see Gina Smith's to do chart below.
  - Is the SCC okay with inviting a broad group of supportive organizations and groups for the X-Mas Banquet? I like the idea, but I also recognize that I am not the one doing the work. (Brody Morris)
Yes, Brody Morris and Ange Lukan will ask each organization/group to send a representative to attend the banquet.

SCC Meeting Minutes Tuesday, December 3, 2019

- Community Dance Discussion:
  - What are the logistical requirements needed to put this dance on?
  - What dollar amount will the SCC be giving towards the dance?

The SCC decided that they do not want to move forward with a Community Dance at this time.

Our initial reason for wanting a dance was to make sure the Grade 12 students had a Graduation Dance. However, the dance has evolved into something different than what was wanted.

- Out Saskatoon Wendy Li: (Gina Smith)
  - When would we like to book Wendy Li?
    - Does she have specific dates open?

Gina Smith sent out an email to Wendy Li with our available dates. We are aiming for a Wednesday in January. We will combine our SCC Meeting and Wendy Li's talk.

- Is there anything else the SCC needs to do? Approve funds?

Alana Gunsch motioned to pay Wendi Li a $100 honorarium, and pay for her mileage as well Dionne Laprairie seconded.

- Weekly SCC & Community Run Home Economics Classes: (Alana Gunsch)
  - Discuss each SCC member setting up three Home Ec. Classes at the Borden Hall starting January to June.
    - An SCC member will be asked to simply contact a community member from the list provided below, to setup a date for them to come in and teach a Home Ec. Class.

If you know someone or have an activity that is not listed below (after verifying it's an acceptable activity with Brody Morris), please feel free to have a class setup.
    - One community member can be scheduled for multiple days.
    - The preferred date to hold a Home Ec. Class is on Fridays, but there is flexibility if required.
    - The School will cover the cost of supplies. It will be discussed on a case by case basis who will purchase the supplies.
    - There doesn't need to be a weekly class; but, we would like to fill as many weeks as we can.
    - Once you have established a date with the Community Member, you can contact Brody Morris and Ange Lukan with the details. They will take over from there.

SCC Meeting Minutes Tuesday, December 3, 2019

- In school debates/critical thinking with community engagement (Alana Gunsch):
  - Is this something we are able to move forward with?
    - How will we move forward?

See “New Business/ Agriculture in the Classroom” below.

- After school gym time supervision: (Alana Gunsch)

Another email reminding parents of the Friday after school gym time should be sent out.
Dionne Laprairie will contact Ange Lukan to do that.

- Are there any SCC Members available to supervise / participate in the 3:00 – 4:00p.m. after school gym time?

This activity depends on SCC Members volunteering an hour of their time on a Friday, to supervise an after school gym activity.

In our SCC Meeting each member signed our name to a Friday that we are available to supervise.

There are generally about 15 students in attendance.

- Is there a specific day of the week this supervision is required? (Dionne Laprairie)
Fridays

5. New Business:

- Will the SCC Pay for students and Gina to attend an SRC Leadership Conference in Wynyard? (Gina Smith)
  - We would be paying for the following people to attend:
    - Gina Smith - $25 per person
    - Levi Gough - $25 per person
    - Jade Matte - $25 per person
    - Sydney Schmidt - $25 per person

The SCC will pay for the SRC Leadership Conference in Wynyard registration fee for each of the members mentioned above, and pay for mileage as well.

Motioned by Marcia Parker, and seconded by Alana Gunsch.

- Agriculture in the classroom (ALL FREE): (Dionne Laprairie)
  - Would be an in class room presentation by Zach Fellows - Journey 2050 - Agriculture in the classroom
GRADES 7 TO 12
How will we sustainably feed nearly 10 billion people by the year 2050?

SCC Meeting Minutes Tuesday, December 3, 2019

Journey 2050 allows schools around the world to experience agriculture like it's never been taught before. As students explore world food sustainability they are encouraged to think critically about the ripple effect on social, economic and environmental factors locally and globally.

Agricultural experts and real farm families from Kenya, India and Canada guide students through a virtual farm simulation, career avatar game and geography scavenger hunt.

Visit www.Journey2050.com to access curriculum links, step-by-step lesson plans, animated videos, interactive games, agriculture news, answer keys and much more. Click the REGISTER NOW button to book a guest speaker from AITC-SK to come to your school and deliver 2 hours of the 5 hour experience.

- This could go along with Alana's in school debate and critical thinking?

Dionne will contact Zach at Agriculture in the Classroom to have a time for Journey 2050 setup. - This will be Dionne's Home Ec. Class setup

Dionne will also look into other options that Agriculture in the Classroom provides \(ex: Van that comes to the school with worm boxes\). This will also be Dionne's Home Ec. Class contribution.

- Motion to reimburse members for travel when driving to specific SCC events or on SCC business. (Alana Gunsch)

No need SCC pays for mileage to meetings.

- SCC General Assembly

Skip-and discuss at February meeting

- Re-imagine Education:

Skip and discuss at January meeting.

- Drama Cub: (Dionne Laprairie)

- Would there be student interest?
  - Should this be a school or community club?

This would be setup as a Community Club. However, Brody Morris mentioned that we could possibly use the school gym if we had a set schedule, and could find a staff member willing to keep the school open for us.

This first play would be a Dinner Theater \(Open for discussion\).

Dionne Laprairie - will contact Dan Gunsch to help out.

Dionne Laprairie – Will send out community and school email

- SCC Community potluck was a success: (Alana Gunsch)

We will take a look at a having a potluck for March 25th, Parent Teacher Interviews at our April SCC meeting.

SCC Meeting Minutes Tuesday, December 3, 2019

- SCC Storage location (Alana Gunsch):

Alana would like to buy a large tote bin to hold all of the SCC's supplies. It would then be stored at the School in a spot designated by Brody Morris.

Motioned by Alana Gunsch and seconded by Dionne Laprairie.
