Option 1: Assessment at DES

What does a 4 ACTUALLY mean on a progress report? How come my kid doesn't have homework? When's the test? Ms. Korver and Mr. Reis will explain how teachers assess students today and how it's probably different from when we were in school.

Option 2: Supporting Mental Health in our Kids

Mrs. Peters (DES School Counsellor) will provide some examples for parents to support mental health in elementary students.

Option 3: OutSaskatoon

Janna from OutSaskatoon will provide an overview on sexual diversity, gender identity, and allyship. This will be a preview of upcoming class presentations on May 31.

8:00-8:45pm

Option 1: FAQ's with DES Admin Team

Mr. Reis and Ms. Korver will cover some of the most frequently asked questions that parents may have including dealing with student conflict, class placements, homework, and classroom supports.

Option 2: Supporting Cultural Awareness & Diversity

Mr. Sauer will lead a talk about how to support and discuss cultural diversity and awareness in our community.

Option 3: OutSaskatoon (repeat session)

Janna from OutSaskatoon will provide an overview on sexual diversity, gender identity, and allyship. This will be a preview of upcoming class presentations on May 31.
